FOR YOUTH DEVELOPMENT®
FOR HEALTHY LIVING
FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

- The YMCA is not responsible for, and discourages staff from providing paid care and custody for a YMCA participant, under 18, outside of a YMCA program.
- Physical restraint (staff confining a child by holding the child appropriately) is only to be used in situations where a child puts himself/herself or others in danger and must be documented in writing.
- Staff should use positive techniques of child guidance, including redirection, anticipation and elimination of potential problems, and encouragement, rather than competition, comparison or criticism.
- Staff may not touch children on areas of their bodies that would be covered by a swimming suit except when diapering, changing clothes, giving medical treatment or washing a child off as appropriate to their job function, or in programs requiring appropriate spotting or manual instructional support (such as gymnastics and swim instruction.)
- Using, possessing, or being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs during working hours is prohibited.
- Staff should not accept gratuities from participants; if staff are given a gift from a member/participant/volunteer, staff should notify their supervisor so that s/he can help you determine if it is of substantial value. Gifts that are considered to be of substantial value cannot be accepted.
- Parental permission must be given to take photos of YMCA participants. The use of personal cell phones to photograph YMCA participants is prohibited. Staff may not use photographs taken at YMCA programs and/or of YMCA participants for purposes other than those directly related to the program or to the YMCA.
- If staff chooses to post a personal website, or to participate in web-groups, chat rooms or blogs, the following guidelines must be followed:
  1. The use of photos, logos or images of the YMCA or its programs is prohibited. If staff use the YMCA's name (including names of camps or other programs) in any such communication, staff should be especially careful to support and certainly not to harm or ridicule the YMCA's image or mission.
  2. Personal website should be marked "private," so that only people that staff have invited may access your page. Staff are prohibited from inviting YMCA youth (campers, program participants, members, etc. under the age of 18) to access their website.

If you observe any inappropriate behavior, or violations of the Code of Conduct, you should report it to YMCA personnel immediately.
